Poems by Langston Hughes

It’s time to write a response to the poems:

First, describe the poem you liked best and why.
Next, describe what you think Langston Hughes’s message is in his poem “Mother to Son.”
Then, whom would you write a tribute poem about and why?

Before you write, you may skim the poems again.
On Course
Literature Response

Name ____________________________ Date ____________

What poem did you like best?
Describe the poem you liked best and your reasons why.
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

What’s the poet’s message?
Write down what you think Langston Hughes’s message is in his poem “Mother to Son.”
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

Whom would you write a poem about?
If you were to write a tribute poem like Langston Hughes’s poem “Helen Keller,” whom would your poem be about and why?
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

Poems by Langston Hughes 2