

Learn about its history, geography, and other important facts, when you explore the Centennial State with our unit study supplement all about Colorado!

K - 3rd Grades

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
Kindergarten Language Arts	The Sights and Sounds of Hard c and w	Sounds, Letters, and Words > Instruction/Practice: Explore the Hard Sound of c
1st Grade Language Arts	Long Vowels, Suffixes, Plurals	Sights and Sounds of o_e > Instruction/Practice: Phonics: Long o
3rd Grade Social Studies	The World in Spatial Terms	Locate Rocky Mountains
3rd Grade Social Studies	Long Vowels, Suffixes, Plurals	Sights and Sounds of o_e > Instruction/Practice: Phonics: Long o

4th - 5th Grades

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
4th Grade Social Studies	Geography	Mountain Ranges
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Politics 1801-1840	Louisiana Purchase
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Politics 1801-1840	Zebulon Pike Expedition
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. History 1820-1850	Sante Fe Trail
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. History 1820-1850	Outcomes of the Mexican War
5th Grade Social Studies	Geography of the United States	States and Capitals
5th Grade Social Studies	Geography of the United States	Midwest & the Great Plains
5th Grade Social Studies	Geography of the United States	The Continental Divide

Middle School

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
MS World Cultures and Geography	The US and Canada	Physical Features of the United States
MS World Cultures and Geography	The US and Canada	Ancient Civilizations: Native American and Inuit Cultures
MS US History	Geography and Colonialism	Geography of the Nation and the World
MS US History	Industrialization and Its Effects	A New Revolution

High School

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
US History I	Origins, Exploration, and Conflict	Spanish Exploration
US History I	Origins, Exploration, and Conflict	French and Dutch Exploration
US History I	A New Nation	Expansion and Settlement
US History I	Manifest Destiny	Great Trails
US History II	Populism and the American West	Going West