

Learn about its history, geography, and other important facts, when you explore the Keystone State with our unit study supplement all about Pennsylvania!

K - 3rd Grades

Activity Number:

KR115
KR173
LA061
KR043
20064
20046

Activity Title:

Instruction/Practice: Phonics: Short e
Explore the Sound of y
Instruction/Practice: Phonics: Long a
Instruction/Practice: Phonics: Short a
Historic Places: Monumental Madness
Map Skills: Locating states, continents, and oceans

4th - 5th Grades

Activity Number:

331
531
360
611
695
5757
5021
5022
5758
5763
5766

Activity Title:

Summer in Philadelphia, 1787: Constitutional Convention
People of the Convention: Delegates of the Constitutional Convention
Topics of the Convention: The Great Compromise
The First Continental Congress
Discussing the Declaration of Independence
Turning Points of the War
War Changes Course
Gettysburg Address: Speech Over the Battlefield
Lincoln's Famous Address
Death of President Lincoln: President Johnson's Plan for Reconstruction
Andrew Johnson Becomes President

6th - 8th Grade

Activity Number:

6088
6085
6011
6130
7024
7025
7065
7097
7103

Activity Title:

Reviewing the Declaration of Independence
Let Freedom Ring
Railroads Change the Nation
National & State Landmarks: Landmarks in Your State
American Revolution: Liberty or Death
Evaluating the Declaration of Independence and the American Revolution
Creating the Constitution
Restoring the Union: Reuniting
Industry in America: Changes in America

9th - 12th Grade

Activity Number:

H1037
H1038
H1047
H1048
H1049
H1057
H1059
HS241

Activity Title:

Regional Differences in Colonies: Pennsylvania and New York
Life in the Colonies and Emergence of the American People
The Second Continental Congress
The Move Toward Independence
The Declaration of Independence
Weaknesses of the Articles and the Continental Congress
The Constitutional Convention
Gettysburg and its Aftermath