

The role of women in history gets a major highlight in March! Use these Time4Learning resources to learn about and celebrate great women throughout history.

K - 5th Grades

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
3rd Grade Social Studies	North American Colonization	Pocahontas
4th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Revolutionary Period	People in the Revolution > Women of the American Revolutionary War
4th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Revolutionary Period	People in the Revolution > Colonial Women and the Fight for Independence
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Politics 1801-1840	Lewis & Clark Expedition (Sacajawea)
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Economy in the mid-1800s	Freedom Fighters (Sojourner Truth)
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Economy in the mid-1800s	Harriet Tubman
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Economy in the mid-1800s	Women Struggle for Rights
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Economy in the mid-1800s	Contributors to Women's Rights
5th Grade Social Studies	U.S. Economy in the mid-1800s	Women's Rights Leaders
5th Grade Social Studies	The American Civil War	Women & the Civil War
5th Grade Social Studies	19th Century Individuals	Madame CJ Walker

Middle School

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
MS US History	The Roaring 20s and the Great Depression	Women Win the Right to Vote
MS US History	Postwar America	Expanding Civil Rights
MS Civics, Government, and Economics	The Role of the Citizen	Extending Civil Rights for All Citizens
MS Civics, Government, and Economics	Citizens and the Political Process	Pursuing the Right to Vote
6th Grade LA Extensions	Genres of Literature - Extension	Characteristics of a Speech (Susan B. Anthony)

High School

Course:	Chapter:	Lesson:
US History I	Jacksonian Democracy	Rights for Women
US History II	Progressivism and Reform	Women's Rights and Suffrage
US History II	The 20s and the Great Depression	Society in the 1920s
US History II	The 70s and 80s	Women's Rights Movement
Language Arts 9	Fighting for Equality	Structure and Narrative: Rosa Parks' Memoir, My Story
	A Nation Dividing and Expanding: Civil War, Regionalism, and Realism
Language Arts 11		Abolition and Women's Rights Movements, Parts 1 & 2